Straightway after your morning meal, we will take you to a full day tour in Hong Kong enjoying the culture of the city lifestyle domestically. Another promising moment which you will have a privilege of a half day tour in the city of Hong Kong, which brings you to The Repulse Bay, In 1841, the bay was used as a base by pirates and caused serious concern to foreign merchant ships trading with China. The pirates were subsequently repulsed by the British Fleet; hence the name. Another theory holds that the bay was named after HMS Repulse which was stationed at the bay at one point. In the 1910s, Repulse Bay was developed into a beach, and the Repulse Bay Hotel was built in 1920. To attract swimmers, a bus route from Central to Repulse Bay was created, and now stands as one of Hong Kong's oldest bus routes. During the Battle of Hong Kong in World War II, Repulse Bay was an important strategic location. Continuing to Aberdeen (pronounced /æbər'di:n) is an area on the south shore of Hong Kong Island in Hong Kong.
